"THE LIVES OF GREAT MEN . . .

THE ESSENTIAL HISTORY OF AMERICA

The Essential History of America is a collection of histories of the great events of our country. It is intended for the education of young people and the general public. It is written in a simple, direct, and interesting style. It is designed to give a clear and accurate account of the history of the United States from its earliest days to the present time. It is intended to be a valuable addition to the library of every school and home.

PATRIOTIC HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The Patriotic History of the United States is a collection of histories of the great events of our country. It is intended for the education of young people and the general public. It is written in a simple, direct, and interesting style. It is designed to give a clear and accurate account of the history of the United States from its earliest days to the present time. It is intended to be a valuable addition to the library of every school and home.

IN APPRECIATION

We, the Class of 1958, are grateful to our sponsors for the guidance and direction they have given us through our years in school.

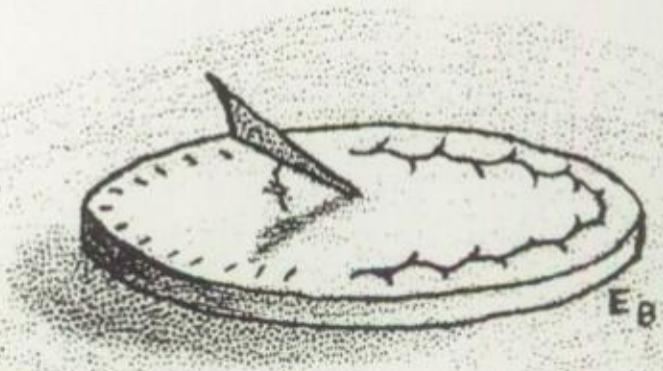

We know that the progress and achievements of any class are due to the careful planning and supervision of its class advisers. Therefore, as we look back over the achievements and successes which have been ours through our sponsors' untiring efforts, we are doubly grateful to them for their helpfulness and kind consideration.

In appreciation of those who have not only been teachers, but advisers and friends as well, we respectfully dedicate this issue of The Buccaneer Trail to Mr. Cunningham and Miss Biester.

FOREWORD

Now is the time for retrospect, for remembering, and looking ahead. In years to come, our high school days will be just an echo in the past. But today, while memories are still clear, let us pause to reflect upon the many hours of pleasure as well as the hours of study and hard work we have passed in school. Let time be our guide, as we follow the hands of the clock through our school life and relive some of its many cherished moments.

EDWARD V. TOPPING
Principal

No one can foretell the new wonders which the forces of our time will produce. We can be sure that the secrets of today will be the knowledge of the future. More and more significance must be placed upon what we do with the time we have today, else the rightful promise of the future cannot materialize.

We cannot "relax and enjoy what comes". This attitude may seem pleasant and easy but it is actually much too tranquilizing, much too passive, much too defeatist. There are things we can and should do. Even though we may never desire to master these great changes, we can and should take time to understand them and to adjust and adapt ourselves to them to the maximum of our capacities.

Wisely used, time is our most valuable possession. Unwisely used, it becomes our greatest hindrance to progress.

Members of the Class of 1958

I wish you well as you leave Interboro for the activity of your choice be it matriculation at some institution of higher learning, entry upon a business career, or assumption of responsibility in individual life.

During the past three years Interboro has made great progress in developing a school system that is a credit to our three towns. I feel sure, as time goes by, that you will be proud of the creditable part you have had in this great experience in cooperation and fusion.

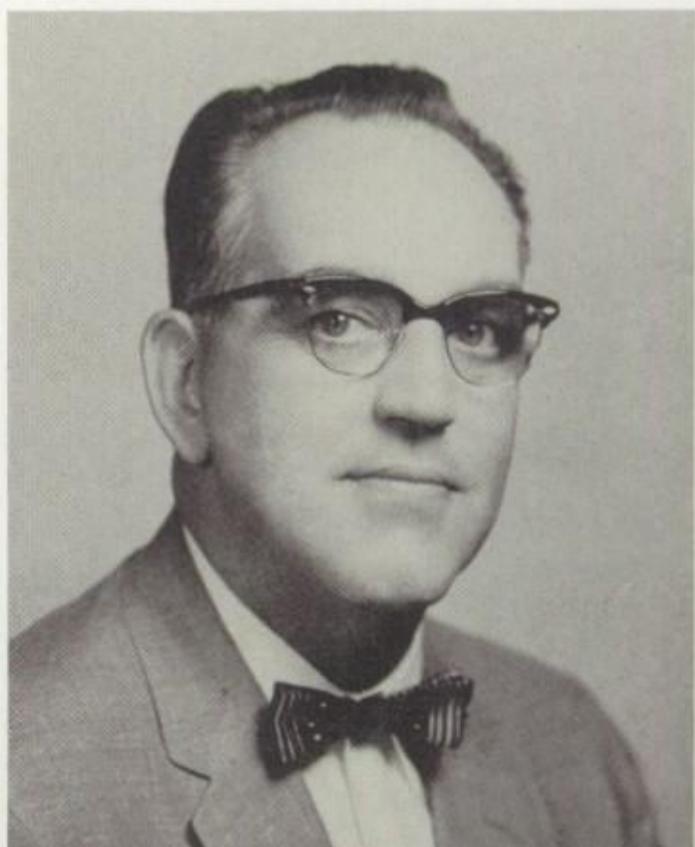

It is my fond hope that ere long our jointure will stand as a monument of progress and achievement in public education expressed not only by improved building facilities but also by modern educational procedures.

May the successes and joys of your school career be but a prelude to wider successes and deeper joys in your future sphere of activities.

As you go forth may you remember --

"There is a tide in the affairs of men
Which, taken at the flood leads on to fortune,
Omitted, all the voyage of their life
Is bound in shallows and in miseries."

INTERBORO SCHOOL BOARD

President ..... Mr. T. Irving Howe
Vice-President ..... Mr. Charles R. Moore
Secretary ..... Mr. H. Warner Grant, Jr.
Treasurer ..... Mr. Robert B. Neave

Each year the school board, by unselfish and interested application, adds immeasurably to the present and future educational needs of our system.

As a result of the board's consistent efforts, the plans for the proposed building programs are rapidly coming to realization. It is hoped that during the summer, ground will be broken for the new additions.

We deeply appreciate the help and guidance the board of education gives in maintaining the high standards of our school.

RALPH AMIS

Academic

41 Boon Avenue
Glenolden

Ralph, who is often called "Sleepy," is noted for riding to and from school on a red motor scooter. His secret desire is to complete his homework in one night! During his Junior year, he was often heard saying, "Hey Bill, lend me your physics notebook?" He is a Civil Air Patrol sergeant. Upon completion of high school, Ralph wants to join the Air Force and become a pilot.

Rifle Team 1, 3; Rifle Club 1, 2, 3.

ELIZABETH RUTH ANDREWS

Academic

"Betty"

1050 Oakwood Drive
Glenolden

For Interboro to have an undefeated football team is Betty's spirited desire. She is often seen rooting on the sidelines of every sport in which Bob participates. If you ever want to find her, just look for Carol or one of the "Six Reformers". And why does Betty take the long way home? Could it be that she is looking for a certain yellow convertible? For the past three years, she has been the Student Council secretary. We wonder if she ever finished her Council notes on time?

DIRK BAIRD

Business

106 South Love Lane
Norwood

"Dork"

The next time you see a Volkswagen, look twice, for Dirk may be driving it! Sometime in the future he hopes to purchase one. Dirk has been an enthusiast of sports cars for a long time—especially Porsches. His secret desire is to race sports cars. Since his favorite pastime is driving, he often goes to Wynnefield on weekends.

EVELYN MARIE BAKER

Academic

848 Fourteenth Avenue
Prospect Park

"Lynn"

Lynn has been awarded a scholarship to the Saturday morning classes at Moore Institute of Art. However, she still feels she needs eight periods of art a day. In her spare moments we might find her sewing or cooking, or riding around in her blue and white Plymouth. Reading and playing the piano also occupy much of her time. She is an officer for the Rainbow Girls.

Dramatics Club 1; Art Club 2; Yearbook Staff 3.

JAMES HENRY BARKER

Academic

"Jim"

50 S. Scott Avenue
Glenolden

Jim's hot aqua Hudson may help him forget the years he spent in French class. However, he feels that his greatest need is to memorize Webster's dictionary. Although Jim is sometimes a serious student, he is never afraid of a joke and can be depended upon to liven up a party. He displays his more generous side by offering the hikers from Ashland Avenue a ride to school.

JOYCE ELIZABETH BARRICK

Business

607 Delaware Avenue
Norwood

"Joy"

Being a missionary is Joyce's greatest ambition. She can usually be found with Joan. In her spare time, she writes letters to that extra special guy in the Air Force, and she spends her summers at "Word of Life Island." What is the big attraction in North Africa? Could it be an Air Force base in Morocco?

RUTH MARY BECK

Practical Arts

"Ruthie"

3 A Glen Avenue
Glenolden

A ball of fire seems to be an appropriate description for Ruthie, who has been nicknamed "shorty" by her friends. With her radiant smile, Ruth beams from behind the wheel of her sharp '49 Chevy. She is always seen with Kathie and Lois. Her pet peeve is getting up in the morning, and her greatest need is money. In her spare time Ruthie enjoys driving and playing basketball. She secretly desires to own a fur coat and to spend a summer at Wildwood.

SONDRA ROSALIA BERGMAN

Academic

"Sandy"

641 Aronomink Place
Drexel Hill

Sandy's secret desire is to own a red sports car, but right now her driving is confined to a 98 Olds. Her favorite pastimes are cooking and planning parties for the gang, and we bet Sandy will never forget the big New Year's Eve party. After graduation, Sandy plans to enter the nursing profession.

SONDRA LEE BEITCHER

Business

"Sonnie"

19 East Glenolden Avenue
Glenolden

Sonnie's pet peeve is those book reports in English. Riding in a convertible is an enjoyable pastime for Sonnie, but she hopes to have a car of her own soon. Double dates with Pat and Bill are quite the thing, and for this reason, she is constantly heard saying, "Pat, are you going to wear Bermudas tonight?"

Don secretly would love to see Mr. Cunningham climb the rope. He wants to make loads of money so he can buy that '53 Mercury he needs. Always seen with his sidekick Merle.

Rifle Team 1, 2.

STEPHEN JOHN BASACCO

Academic

"Steve"

208 S. Scott Avenue
Glenolden

To see Interboro beat Swarthmore is Steve's innermost desire. He drives a "57" Plymouth, but desperately needs a "58". Steve is a lifeguard at Stone Harbor, and his favorite pastime is saving people on the beach. Steve often goes to Swarthmore to visit Mary Jane.

NAOMI KAY BOUCHELLE

Academic

"Omi"

532 Mohawk Avenue
Norwood

Naomi, a chic little import from Ridley Park, secretly desires to raise French poodles. One of the "Four", Omi says she loves curly hair, cashmere sweaters, talking on the telephone, and club meetings. Her pet peeve is not being allowed to have the car. However, she hopes to remedy that situation by getting a Desoto of her own. She hopes to be in training at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital by next fall. Oh, Naomi, do you remember that summer in Wildwood?

WILLIAM E. BOVARD

Practical Arts

"Bill"

1102 Oakwood Drive
Glenolden

Girls and painting have always been Bill's favorite pastimes. "Oh nuts," is his favorite expression. Bill thinks that the profession of an advertising director would be ideal because he needs money and a chance to practice art. As Art Editor for the '58 Buccaneer Trail he has done a fine job. A sunny disposition and good sense of humor make him everybody's friend. Bill enjoys dancing and has become a steadfast Holy Cross fan.

CAROL LEE BRIGHTON

Practical Arts

"Carol"

125 Amosland Road
Norwood

Carol, one of the "Six Reformers," can't stand dentist appointments. She especially needs high enough marks to get into college, and more clothes. Talking on the phone, or being with Hal, are Carol's favorite pastimes. She is a hard worker and one of the stalwarts of the class.

CHARLOTTE MARIE BRINTON

Practical Arts

"Cookie"

1024 Lincoln Avenue
Prospect Park

"I can't stand school, or people who feed you lines," says Cookie. She hopes to be married soon after graduation, perhaps then she will be free of kid brother troubles. A new car would also answer her dreams. Charlotte still remembers her double dates, and if asked about them she replies, "'Tis true." Of course, this typical girl is always on the phone, mostly with Anne.

PATRICIA BROWN

Business

4 E. Glenolden Avenue
Glenolden

Interboro's colorguard captain is greatly in need of a car and will long remember that Sunday at Drexelbrook. She enjoys double-dating with Sonnie and Bob and writing letters. On the subject of speech-making, Pat hopes that she never has to give another one as long as she lives. A career in modeling seems a well-chosen profession for one so attractive and well-dressed.

Colorguard 1, 2, 3; Homemaking Club 1.

"Pat"

BRUCE BUZZELL

Practical Arts

"Buzz"

674 Ninth Avenue
Prospect Park

"Buzz," as he is often called, has had many cars, the most recent being a '48 Ford. He feels that money leads to mischief, but still he would like to be rich. Bruce is often seen at the Norwood Diner with Phil Schmidt and the boys. His one wish is to get out of school. A member of our chorus for three years, Bruce can often be found listening to music.

Chorus 1, 2, 3.

NINA CARR

Business

733 Ninth Avenue
Prospect Park

"Nina"

If Nina could spend the rest of her life sleeping, eating, and walking, and never have to look at another school book again, she would be satisfied. Aside from younger brother troubles and that miserable thing called homework, Nina has few complaints. We all know her as a pleasant personality who enjoys football games and being with her friends. While she declares that her greatest need is "a little intelligence", no one has yet learned her secret desire, for as she says, "It's a secret."

The mere mention of Rock'n Roll, money, or the Navy, and Ro suddenly comes alive. On the other hand, the slightest reference to work or old men in new cars, and you get the opposite reaction. Her impression of Elvis is simply "Holy Cow." When she graduates, "Aunt Ro" plans to keep the Practical Arts girls well supplied with gum from her personal chewing gum factory.

Bowling Club 1; Typing Club 2.

LOIS CASNER

Business

"Lois"

511 Elmwood Avenue
Glenolden

Lois is one of the more serious minded students representing Interboro. She is a faithful go-getter when it comes to obtaining patrons and selling things. Lois's pet peeve is people who think they are perfect. Her secret desire is to take a trip to sunny California. For this, her greatest need, which is plenty of money, would come in very handy. Lois's favorite pastime is shopping for new clothes.

SUSAN MARY CASSELS

Academic

"Sue"

201 Knowles Avenue
Glenolden

This lovely senior, who aspires to one day being secretary to Mr. Dupont himself, enjoys writing letters and being with Bob. Anything marked "Censored" makes her see red. One of the "Six Reformers," Sue is an energetic cheerleader whose favorite pastime is singing. To see Interboro's football team undefeated would make her life complete.

WILLIAM CHAMBERS

Practical Arts

"Bill"

705 Surrey Lane
Glenolden

Bill is one of our St. James imports. He often drives his '56 black Plymouth, and he enjoys it until he gets behind a "typical woman driver." Sports of all types are a favorite with Bill, and he secretly would like to play pro ball with a team like the Baltimore Colts. He likes the Warriors for basketball and is an avid fan of Interboro's hockey team. On weekends Bill frequents St. Gabe's or the school dances.

ROGER STANLEY CLARKE

Academic

"Rog"

504 MacDade Boulevard
Glenolden

To be the proud owner of an island is Roger's innermost desire. He dreams of painting scenes along the sandy shores of that blue lagoon. Perhaps part of it will come true, for he spends a great deal of his time developing his artistic skills. He thinks that his greatest need is to own an I. B. M. Machine.

Bobbi, who is one of the "Four," is always seen with Pat, Betty Lou, and Omi. She spends a great deal of her time dancing at Saint Gabriel's dances and attending club meetings. Can anyone guess why she wants to own a "Bobbi-Pin" factory? Barb, as editor of the photography staff of our yearbook, spent much of her Senior year supervising the pictures in this book. In her extra time, she listens to Fats Domino's records and dreams of last summer in Wildwood.

ED CONWAY

Practical Arts

655 Sixteenth Avenue
Prospect Park

Having come to us from Saint James, Ed says that his greatest dislike is school. Someday he hopes to own a Pizzeria Shop and practice his favorite pastime of sleeping in the back room. Money and a flashy new car are his main objects in life. At night he works hard at a gas station in Norwood.

"Ed"

ALBERT COSTA

Business

"Al"

523 Thirteenth Avenue
Prospect Park

To be a member of the Eagles Football Team is Al's greatest desire. Since seventh grade, all who have followed sports have heard the familiar words, "Go-Go Costa." In the near future Al hopes to be the owner of a fire engine red Corvette. This speedy senior has been an asset to us in all the sports in which he has so actively participated. Although he claims his major annoyance is girls, we all know that they are one of his major interests.

THE ISLE OF THE LONG AGO

Oh, a wonderful stream is the River Time,
As it flows through the realm of Tears,
With a faultless rhythm and a musical rhyme,
And a broader sweep and a surge sublime,
As it blends with the ocean of Years.

There's a magical Isle up the River Time
Where the softest of airs are playing;
There's a cloudless sky and a tropical clime,
And a voice as sweet as a vesper chime,
And the Junes with the roses are staying.

And the name of this Isle is the Long Ago,
And we bury our treasures there;
There are brows of beauty and bosoms of snow—
They are heaps of dust, but we loved them
so!
There are trinkets and tresses of hair.

...

There are hands that are waved when the fairy shore
By the mirage is lifted in air;
And we sometimes hear through the turbulent roar
Sweet voices we heard in the days gone
before,
When the wind down the River is fair.

IN MEMORIAM

We, the Class of 1958, wish to dedicate this space in memory of one of our beloved classmates. His untimely death took him from his friends and loved ones and cut short a life that had so much to offer to both school and community. Truly our class has missed his sincere friendship and pleasant fellowship, but we believe that he must have had a higher calling than we are able to realize, since he was taken from among us so soon.

CLASS HISTORY

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

On September 7, 1955, the day had come at last when we entered high school. Faced with a new responsibility we chose class officers whom we thought worthy of their position: Bob Grainger, President; Sue Tinney, Vice-President; Virginia Staley, Secretary; Sue Cassels, Treasurer; Albert Costa and Steve Bosacco, Sergeants-at-Arms.

After getting organized as a new class from two schools, it was fun to do things together and get to know each other. Maybe this is why everyone so anxiously looked forward to our Sophomore Party in November. Practically everyone in the class came and enjoyed himself, dancing, talking, and, of course, eating.

Many people consider Friday the thirteenth unlucky, but it was a wonderful day for us – our first high school prom. The work and headaches of planning and decorating were greatly rewarded when we entered the gym and saw our theme, "April In Paris", carried out so beautifully. We decorated in shades of blue and white to give the effect of a night in a Parisian sidewalk cafe. A large Eiffel Tower in the center of the floor put the finishing touch on our decorations. We danced to the music of Doc Blanchard's band, and at twelve o'clock everyone came down from his cloud and headed for somewhere to eat and talk about the wonderful evening.

It seemed that the prom was no sooner over than we were off on April 27, to Harrisburg and Gettysburg for our class trip. We dined at the famous Hershey Hotel and spent a very enjoyable evening there.

Final exams brought to an end a wonderful sophomore year which we shall long remember.

Our junior year started off with the traditional election of officers. They were Bob Grainger, President; Mark Muller, Vice President; Peggy Irrgang, Secretary; Sue Cassels, Treasurer; and Albert Costa and Steve Bosacco, Sergeants-at-Arms.

The first event of this busy year was our class party which was held in November in the gym.

In order to meet our responsibilities as a class, it was our problem to earn money for our treasury. Our biggest project was a magazine sale which enticed many members of the class with prizes offered for selling the greatest number of subscriptions. The sale was quite successful. We also sold Christmas corsages.

In April we had our Junior Prom, entitled "Pink Paradise". As the title suggests, the gym was decorated in pink and white streamers. A huge silver crescent of a moon was our centerpiece. There were puffy, pink and white clouds suspended from the ceiling, and we danced to the music of Doc Blanchard's band. At twelve o'clock we all headed to the Norwood Legion, where our parents planned for us a party with food, dancing, and the usual excitement. At 3:30 the party was over, and thus the close of another memorable occasion.

Next on our schedule was our class trip to Washington, D. C. Our well-planned itinerary, included all of the interesting sights. We especially enjoyed the changing of the guards at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and many of us struggled both up and down the seemingly endless flights of steps in the Washington Monument. We had an enjoyable dinner at the Casino Royal, and for most of us it was the first time we had seen a real floor show.

On May 24, the Junior-Senior Prom, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow," was held, and afterwards another party, again planned by our parents.

This was certainly a wonderful year and with its completion we were a step closer to our goal – our senior year.

At the beginning of our senior year we elected our class officers. They were Bob Grainger, President; Danny Monahan, Vice-President; Peggy Irrgang, Secretary; Eileen Love, Treasurer; and Bruce Semple and Albert Costa, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Before long, our senior pictures were taken, and after selecting the proofs, we were soon exchanging the pictures which in later days would help us recapture the memories of a wonderful year.

Money was one of our greatest needs for this expensive year. We ventured upon many money-making projects which included the selling of food at football and basketball games. We also sold an assortment of Christmas candy, and looked forward to the spring when we were to sell Easter eggs.

Our Senior Prom was held on January 3, in the high school gym. Decorated to suit our theme, "Snowflake Ball," the gym looked more beautiful than ever before. It was decorated completely in white with hundreds of evergreen trees planted in the snow-covered bleachers. A huge tree in the center was trimmed with blue lights, reflecting the large snowflakes hanging from the ceiling.

After the prom, we went to a party at the Norwood Legion and danced until our feet were mighty tired. At 4:30 we returned to the high school for a hearty breakfast planned by our parents. This was a prom long to be remembered as the most wonderful event of our senior year.

At the time of this writing plans are in the making for our class play and our long awaited trip to New York.

When we return from New York we shall be anxiously looking forward to class night, and last but not least – graduation.

These few memories are not only written on paper; they are engraved in our minds as experiences we shall never forget but long remember – the most wonderful days of our life.

The yearbook staff, chosen early last spring, began to formulate its ideas during the summer, and when fall came, plans were already under way.

The entire staff's primary objective was to have a better yearbook for 1958. The Editorial Staff was under the direction of Carolyn Rutherford, the Editor-In-Chief, while the Business Staff was headed by Edith Smith, Business Manager.

At the end of the year, when staff members look back upon the days that have gone before, it won't be the memories of the demanding work and the deadlines to be met that will stand out in their minds, but rather the joys of having worked together for their class, and of having provided a record for the 1958 school year.

A BUCCANEER TALE

As the church bell struck 11:00, a dejected looking young man approached the corner mailbox. He paused a moment and then emphatically inserted a letter there! It was done, and that was that.

After five disheartening years, Bill James had finally sent in his resignation. At one time he had believed that teaching would be a very rewarding profession. Now he wondered how any one could have been so naive. After the novelty of those first few hopeful months had worn off, Bill had found himself fighting a losing battle. Students regarded learning as a nuisance and a bore and no teacher alive was going to educate them as long as he had that attitude to contend with.

However, in spite of all his efforts to convince himself that resigning was the right thing to do, it was an unhappy man that climbed into bed that night. After hours of restless dozing and waking, Bill suddenly became aware of a strange presence. Starting up, he found hovering over him a radiantly beautiful gossamer lady, smiling amusingly at his bewilderment and shock.

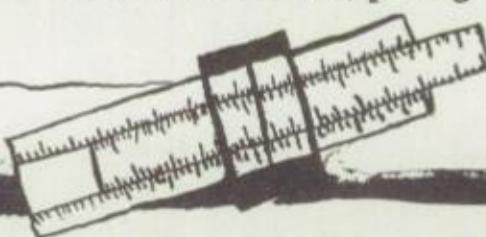

"Who are you? What do you want?" was all the poor man could manage.

"I am Athena, Goddess of Wisdom, and have come to show you how very wrong you've been. It's not true, Bill, that teachers' efforts are futile and fall on unreceptive minds. Though that may often seem the case, it's highly improbable that those who have gone on to happy and successful lives, could have done so without the guidance and training of their teachers. Just to prove my point, we are going to pay a visit to the members of Interboro's class of '58. Before we start, here is your letter of resignation. I'm putting it aside until we return; then you may do with it as you will. Ready? Then, here we go."

"We are now at Hollywood's leading hairdresser's, MME. CONSTANTINE'S Coiffure Salon, patronized by some of America's most beautiful women. Seated there are SUE CASSELS, Miss America 1965, and NAOMI BOUCHELLE, celebrated French Poodle raiser, discussing BETTY ANDREWS' recent best seller HOW TO GET YOUR MAN. Also here today are CAROL HALL, an Avon Lady; JOYCE REESE, top Maybelline representative; and EILEEN LOVE, famous hair model. PAT BROWN and ANNE FEDERLINE, Powers' models, are reading the reviews on ROSE CARTER'S latest book THE ART OF CONVERSATION.

"Now on to the White Plaza in Houston, Texas, where lovely JOANNE JAMES is about to be named "The Secretary of the Year." Some of the country's outstanding businessmen are here for the occasion. There, for instance, is D. F. MONAHAN, president of Gulf Oil Company, with his wife, former BETTY COX, and private secretary, LOIS GEAR. Seated at the same table are BRUCE SEMPLE, wealthy baggy sweater manufacturer, and TOM GALBRAITH, world's leading roofer, just home from a Swiss vacation. They are accompanied by their secretaries CAROLE SCOTT, MARY HARTMAN, RUTH BECK, and WINNIE GRAHAM. NANCY DOWDY, head of Dowdy Dynamite Works seems to be discussing a financial matter with her business managers, PAT LOWE and HARRIET LOANE.

"At the Houston Airport, famous sports commentator CHARLIE HORAN is being greeted by NANCY MACHAMER, "Miss United Airlines 1965." Mr. Horan is headed for the annual Sports Banquet in Miami where ROBERT MULLIN is to be named "Sportsman of the Year." The dining hall tonight at the Fontainbleu is bulging with sports celebrities. Among them are AL COSTA, professional football star; ALICE KEESEY, star forward for the Warriors with her manager, MARION JONES; JANIE SHELTON, All-American Hockey player; and manager, MARIE WESCOTT; BILL CHAMBERS, quarterback for the Baltimore Colts; BILL "DUSTY" RHODES, pinch hitter for the New York Giants; TOM DOWNS, Olympic ice hockey player; and KATHIE SHARP, world's figure skating champion. BOB GRAINGER, wealthy sport enthusiast whose Body-Building Gym is patronized by athletes from all over the world, is the speaker of the evening.

"Our next stop is the John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, where we find the country's leading psychologists ARLENE NOVAK and VIRGINIA STALEY talking absorbedly to the president of the American Medical Association, DR. STEPHEN BOSACCO. Working busily at her desk is CAROLYN RUTHERFORD, Director of Nursing, and her assistant, LOIS MacFARLINE is using a spare moment to finish writing a letter to JOYCE BARRICK and JOAN ROBINSON, medical missionaries now serving in China. Nurse SON德拉 BERGMAN is thanking JUDY FULLERTON for lending her the latest collection of PAUL HENRY'S love poems written to his sweetheart CAROLYN SHARPLESS. Of course, all the hospital's medicines are supplied by MERRILL MERMAN'S Pharmaceutical Company.

"Now on to Washington, D. C. Tonight the nation's capital is shaking with excitement. Senator THOMAS LEWIS has just set a new filibuster record of 32 hours and 43 minutes. As the exhausted statesman emerges from the Senate chamber accompanied by his private secretary, ALICE GREGORY, and SAM DEAVER, Chaplain of the United States Senate, he is met by a storm of newsmen. Among them are JIM KRAUS, photographer for the Philadelphia

BULLETIN and the paper's star reporter, BETTY LOU MILNE. You may recall Miss Milne's tremendous coverage of the United States conquest of the moon last year, made possible by brilliant Nobel Prize winners FRANKLIN HAWKE and RICHARD HELWIG. DAVE EVANS, editor of the BULLETIN has several other Interboro members on his staff. They are RICHARD MULLIKIN, comic strip editor, PAUL FLOYD, sports editor, and typists SON德拉 BETTCHER, NATALIE LOWER, DOLLY WESTERBURG, LUCY ROANE, and BARBARA WATSON. Still edging their way to Senator Lewis are RICHARD LACOX, United States representative to the United Nations, and his valet LAWRENCE LUPO.

"Tonight in Philadelphia the P. T. A. is holding a most important meeting. Officers ADELE ELLIS, ADRIENNE MOLESKI, and NANCY HIGGINS, have gotten things well under way. Speaking right now is SUSAN TINNEY, undisputed authority on adolescent behavior. Some mothers in the audience are CHARLOTTE BRINTON, NINA CARR, LORRAINE WARHOLIC, RUTH DAUB, JUDY GOODWIN, SUSAN ROY, and CAROL BRIGHTON, whose husband, HAL ROBINSON, is the noted author of several controversial books on reorganizing the Confederacy. Later in the evening, lectures will be given by DAVE ENGLISH, "Father of the Year," and WADE PATTON, famous educator and author of HOW TO GET THINGS DONE. Outstanding teachers, CAROL FAMOUS, ANN HOLLAND, JUDY LAMSON, and MARTIN ZACHOR will also speak tonight.

"Now on to New York and then abroad. Here on 5th Avenue is located the world famous dancing studio directed by the master of dancing techniques, BILL HAMILTON. Just setting out to sea is the palatial luxury cruiser of America's richest man, ANDREW LEWIS. Aboard are many of the day's most dazzling personalities. There talking to the T. V. actresses, SUE RYAN and NANCY STONE, stars of that new smash comedy, Oh, SUZERINO, is BOB ROBINSON, the international playboy who has romanced some of the world's most devastating women. On their way to the Grand Prix Races in France are JACK HOWARD, leading Mercedes Benz manufacturer, and his test drivers, JACK MILLS and DICK MILLS. DIRK BAIRD, daring sports car racer who will participate in this thrilling event, is also aboard with managers, ED CONWAY, BRUCE BUZZEL, and RAY D'ESPOSITO. We're now passing the U.S. Atlantic Fleet commanded by Commander MARK MULLER, and there, overhead, is a fighter escort headed by jet pilot, RALPH AMIS.

"Our first stop is Egypt where oil tycoon HENRY RUSSELL is going to conclude a crucial business deal at the palace of the Pharaoh, JOHN MITRO. We find LESLIE TORRENS and DON SPIELMAN, captains of the palace guards, and JOHN KERSTETTER, keeper of the harem. This evening the Pharaoh is presenting VIVIANE FOOTE, Metropolitan Opera Star, and her accompanist, RENEE SLY in a concert performance.

"Away now to the Rivera and the hottest nightspot on the Continent, Le Casino Royale, owned by DIAMOND JIM BARKER. As we approach this lavish building, FRED FERZETTI and BILL HAGAR come out to park the cars. Stationed at the entrance are doormen DON BIRTWELL and WILLIAM SUNICK. Inside, the big boss with his bodyguard DAVE LINDSTROM, is giving instructions to bouncers GEORGE SMITH and JIM FRASER. In the kitchen, Chef VINCENTE YANNONE and Head Waiter DAVE WEBER are discussing a special dish. Lovely cigarette girl PEGGY IRRGANG is talking to FRED KOZMA, the "friendly undertaker," on a rare night out with his secretary LOIS YARWOOD. She is speaking with Diamond Jim's private secretaries and financial managers LINDA WILLIAMS, JANE WYMAN, and EDITH SMITH. Paris fashion designer EVELYN BAKER and her secretary KAY DEVER are talking with successful commercial artist, BILL BOVARD and his business manager, LOIS CASNER, while noted artist ROGER CLARKE is doing caricatures of the party. At the next table are IDA MAY TAYLOR, famous hillbilly signer, and her managers ED OAKES and NORMAN ENGEL.

"Playing in the band we recognize trumpeters DAVE CROSSEN and ED McGLENNEN. Tonight's entertainers include such celebrated personalities as that inimitable comedian, JIM MORGAN, and America's latest singing rage, SPENCER McGRAW.

"Well, that's it. There you've seen, how the members of one class have made their marks in almost every conceivable field, and believe me, their educational background played no small part in their successes. What you do now is up to you, Bill. I will say no more."

Suddenly the gossamer lady was gone, and Bill was asleep.

The next morning he awoke as if from some strange entrancing dream. The funniest thing was how it had all seemed so vivid and real. Well, be that as it may, Bill now knew that he wanted more than anything in the world to continue teaching, and — but wait — his resignation. Oh no — but wait, again — there on the dresser — but it couldn't be! Bill, be sensible! You know it was only a dream — But was it? — for there as big as life lay the letter Bill had mailed with so much determination the night before.

"CIRCUMSTANCES ALTER CASES"

With only one month's time to produce our Senior Play, everyone in the cast, prompters, stage hands, make-up crew, and all the other committees were kept quite busy.

The play selected by our class sponsors was The Admirable Crichton, by James M. Barrie. One of Barrie's fantastic modern plays, it is concerned with an aristocratic English family who revert to the state of nature when shipwrecked on a desert island. While there, they are willing slaves of their former butler, but on return to civilization, the positions are shifted.

The play was presented in the Junior High School Auditorium on February 28 and March 1, thanks to our wonderful director, Mr. Oberholtzer, and our student director, Lorraine Warholic.

As the audience took their seats, and the lights dimmed, the curtain went up, and in a short time we knew our play would be a success.

WISE USE OF TIME

What an eventful year this was for the seniors! They seemed to take just a little more pride in their work, realizing that their scholastic record would show to the outside world what kind of person each one was. For the academic students, it meant an advance from the physics class to chemistry classes. Here they had a chance to analyze their subject matter and to conduct experiments in laboratories, satisfying their scientific curiosity. In these classes, not only were future engineers and chemists trained, but those who expected to enter different fields of work found their respect increasing for the world around them. How could they help it in this year of Sputnik, Explorer, and Vanguard?

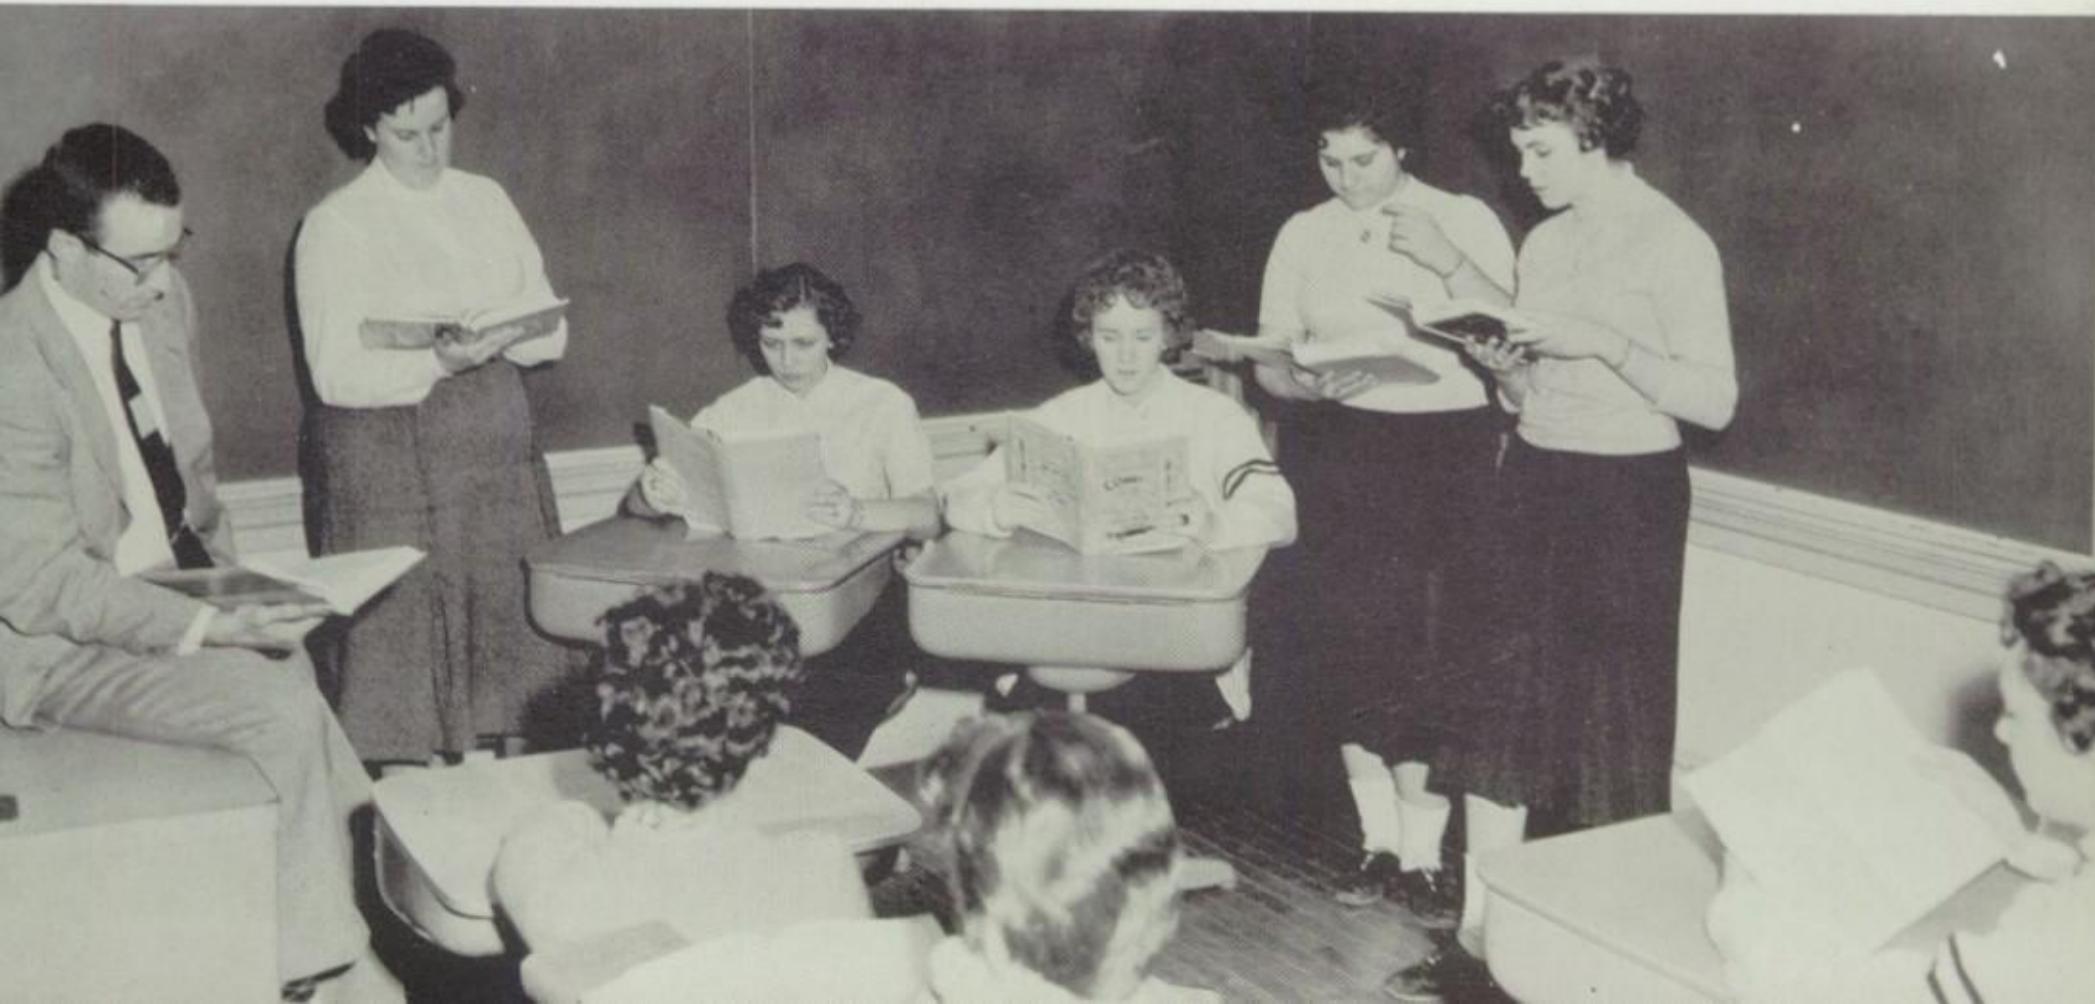

Future engineers and scientists were able to test theories before putting them into practice in the mathematics classes, for the significance of mathematics and its importance in the scientific world became mighty apparent in trigonometry, solid geometry and math survey classes.

The commercial classes worked hard to build up speed and accuracy in shorthand, typing, and book-keeping, as they pursued advanced courses in these subjects. Realizing that the kind of job they would get in the future depended upon how well they mastered these skills, they worked earnestly to measure up to high standards.

THE DAYS FLY BY

Much opportunity was afforded in the English classes for the students to show creative ability in the themes and various creative writing projects required during the year. Additional practice was given in grammar, punctuation, capitalization, spelling, and usage in connection with the written activities. Again, the influence of Shakespeare in the literary world was felt, as "Macbeth" was read, and appreciation of good literature was aroused in the student as a part of their survey of English literature.

Debates and discussions were carried out in the P.O.D. classes as the students studied about the principles of good government, the Constitution, the development of political parties, big business, and labor unions. Research was done on the United Nations, and current events discussions were frequent. All these activities afforded us the opportunity to have experience in analyzing, thinking critically and impartially, forming conclusions, and developing good citizenship qualities.

How we loved every minute of our senior year! And as we end it, perhaps just a bit weary, how wonderful it is to anticipate the application of what we have learned to the life in the world around us.

11-1 under the watchful eye of Mr. Outlaw, has achieved a goal that many strive for in vain - peaceful coexistence. We have completed another year without murder, mayhem, or harsh words - all this in spite of the varied interests of our members. 11-1 is represented among our Junior Class officers, band, athletic and rifle teams, Student Council, Class Congress, Honor Roll - and Detention lists. We had a large percentage contribute to the A. A. Drive, and during the Yule season, Room 8 was decorated as "The Night Before Christmas." We failed to place in the competition, perhaps only because our enthusiasm outlasted our chalk. Our Christmas party, however, was a great success. I'm sure we all agree that this was a year to remember.

HOMEROOMS

11<sup>2</sup>

This has been a fairly successful year for Room 9. During the football season we had 86% in the sale of A.A. cards, and although we won no prize at Christmas for the best decorated room, the members did contribute to the decorating for the Christmas season. The sale of magazines, which turned out fairly well, brought a grand total of $331.49 from Room 9. The achievements thus far were perhaps few, but the spirit was great.

HOMEROOMS

11<sup>4</sup>

The first activity of interest to the students in Mrs. Fox's homeroom was the A.A. Drive. We didn't reach the 100% mark, but we came fairly close with 89%. We proved, however, to be better salesmen when our class turned in $163 on the sale of magazines, corsages, and snowmen. Decorating our homeroom for Christmas was quite a problem because of the biology equipment. Mrs. Fox arranged for us to use Room 1, but again there was a problem; this was where the teachers ate lunch. We finally gave to the room a holiday atmosphere, and our efforts were rewarded by a special mention in the contest. We have well proven that our year was one of work and enjoyment.

11<sup>3</sup>

Room 16, the homeroom of 11-4, has had the experience of having several homeroom teachers, including Miss Ronollo, Mrs. Underwood, and Mr. Oberholtzer.

During the A.A. drive 89% of the homeroom bought A.A. tickets.

The room did rather well during the magazine drive as well as in the corsage and snowman sale.

There were several people in the homeroom who participated in the Junior Class Fashion Show, which was quite a success.

From each eleventh grade homeroom there are three representatives to the Junior Congress. From 11-4 the representatives are Howard Rementer, Bette White, and Barbara Tinley.

ON OUR WAY

This year the juniors had many new subjects introduced. Most intriguing to many of the academic students was the study of heat, electricity, mechanics, sound, light, and machines, introduced in the physics class. Realizing the need for scientific knowledge in this modern age, scientific terms studied in physics class became a part of the academic students' vocabulary. The importance of mathematics in the world of science was brought to light as juniors met the challenge of factoring, equations, and exponents in the algebra classes.

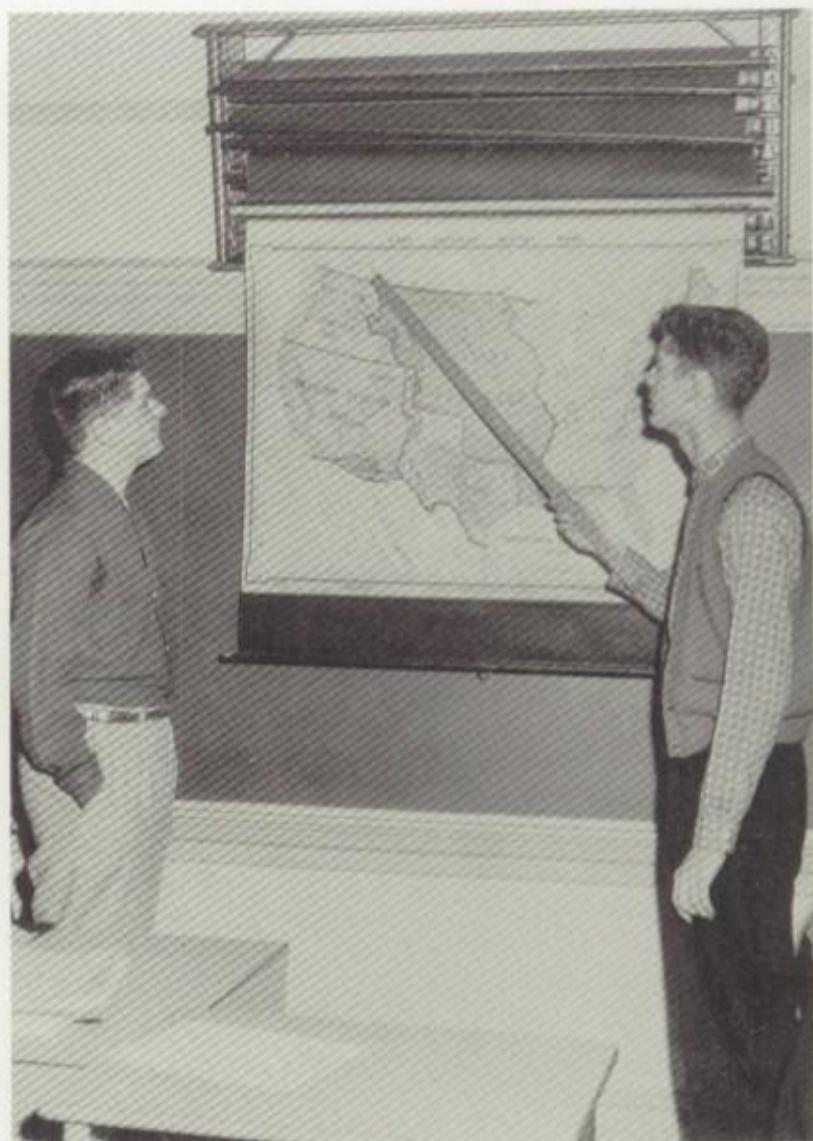

DISCOVERING MAN'S PHYSICAL WORLD

THROUGH TIME WELL SPENT. . .

Interesting and enjoyable to the commercial students were the shorthand and bookkeeping classes, as they began studying and practicing the skills to be developed in both courses. Shorthand, which is really a second language to the commercial students, was diligently studied and practiced as the students learned the importance of this subject to their chosen occupations. Requiring accuracy and concentration, bookkeeping also became a most practical experience for them.

In English classes, the immortal classic, "Romeo and Juliet" was read and enjoyed, and additional cultural influences of the era of Shakespeare were felt as the classes prepared notebooks and other projects. Grammar, creative writing, letter-writing, and correct usage were included in the language arts skills developed in the classroom as once again students felt the need for accuracy in self-expression.

THE LIFE YOU SAVE

Much research was done in the American history classes as the students read and discussed the wonderful heritage which is theirs to enjoy, preserve, and protect. Colonization, the American Revolution, the framing of the Constitution, the Westward Movement, the Civil War, and many other principles of democracy became increasingly important in the eyes of every student as he read of the brave men, their brave deeds, and the careful planning which helped to make our country the free and wonderful place it is today.

Yes, this was an eventful year for the juniors, a year in which much constructive work was accomplished, a year which brought them one step closer to the outside world — one step closer to graduation — a year in which they developed good citizenship qualities with which to meet the future.

10-1 was in a sense very different from the rest of the homerooms, especially for the students that hung their coats and changed their books here. It seems that in Room 4 the latebell rang earlier, the dismissal bell was later, and the homeroom periods were shorter. Along with this, we had huge desks that were very tempermental and tiny lockers that always seemed to be stuck when we were in a hurry. At 3:15 every day there was a mad dash to the closet, but getting your own coat the first time was out of the question! Every day started and ended pretty much like the day before. It never failed; each morning Mr. Landis read from the book of Proverbs, usually to the effect of "Children obey," and "Children Get Wisdom." But in spite of all the obstacles that seemed to reach out and grab us, we somehow managed to come through with flying colors - we were no longer sophomores.

HOMEROOMS

Every homeroom naturally has it's share of characters, and 10-2, not to mention Mr. Peffley, is no exception. Among our collection we have had the early ones, the late ones, the brains, and, most of all, the scatter-brains.

Although we didn't win first place on the Christmas decorations or reach the 100% mark on the A.A. Drive, we did elect Student Council Representatives, Deanne Dixner and Olive Flegal.

And then there were the homeroom periods; they were a lot of fun, and for certain people they were continued after school. What enthusiasm!

Mr. Peffley really deserved credit for putting up with us for a whole year.

"We're just one big happy family". That's a good way to describe Room 24. And just like any other family, we had our outstanding members. For instance, Mabel "Latebell" Keeler. Every morning at 8:41 Mabel came dashing in - she hardly ever missed. And of course we couldn't overlook that eager beaver, Mr. Dwyer. With his help and urging, Room 24 turned in 100% A.A. sales. Also we received second honorable mention for Christmas decorations. Another honor to be bestowed upon this family circle was the presence of our class vice-president and our treasurer, Glenn McCausland and Marian Landenberger. Yes, just one big happy family!

The election of Student Council members was the first important event for our homeroom. Those elected were Barbara Hawke and John Hamilton. We also had four students, Ralph Heisner, John Hamilton, Hesna Johnston and Barbara Hawke, selected to serve on the class congress. Later in the year, the sophomore class elected its officers, and a member of our homeroom, John Hamilton, was elected president.

Our first achievement of the year was the election of two very capable Student Council representatives, Betsy O'Neal and Terry O'Brien. We were very proud to have one of the Sophomore Class officers in our class, Doug Quigg, Sergeant-at-Arms. We also had a lot more to be proud of. For instance, some of the best athletes in the Sophomore Class were found in Room 25. What would Interboro do without their "future" stars, like Jack Roberts, Doug Quigg, and George Reynolds? As we complete our sophomore year we are looking ahead with great enthusiasm to our future as juniors, and to our final goal — "SENIORS".

Janice Palsgrove -- '60

10<sup>6</sup>

Home room 10 - 6 is very proud of the comeback they made. From last place in the A.A. drive to the second best decorated room at Christmas time was quite an improvement. In the A.A. drive we had a mere 62%. The class stalwarts then lead a campaign to have 10-6 recognized as an outstanding sophomore homeroom. We worked very diligently proving that the "under dog" can succeed. Our plan for our comeback was "Silver Bells". Our homeroom was composed of "cats and kittens" from the general, business, and academic courses. Almost everyone participated in one extra-curricular activity or more: band, sports, chorus, or another of the several clubs offered. Our Student Council representatives were Fred Venish and Maryanne Saracina, and our homeroom teacher was Mrs. Hewett.

10<sup>7</sup>

Home room 10-7 was in room 21, the typing room, with Mr. Shoeman. Our student council representatives were Jerry Wilson and Judy Wilson.

In the A.A. drive, 10-7 came through with 90% of the tickets sold.

At Christmas time, 10-7 busily decorated the room with "Santa Claus in Satellite Land" as the theme. A rocket was hung from the ceiling with Santa Claus riding in it. There were stars, a satellite, and other colorful objects from outer space. With this theme, 10-7 won first prize.

We were well represented in extra-curricular activities including hockey, football, basketball, cheer-leading, band, chorus, student council, and several clubs.

A STEP FORWARD

LOGICAL STEPS LEAD TO
LOGICAL CONCLUSIONS

MAKING PLANS FOR THE WORK AHEAD

This year has proved to be an exciting one for the sophomores. They began their first year in the senior high school, and with it they found many changes in the curriculum, as well as in their social life. For the academic students there was that first experience with circles, lines, and tangents in plane geometry, making them increasingly aware of the importance of mathematics in this age of jet aircraft, satellites, income taxes, and billion dollar budgets.

In the field of science, the students worked diligently in biology classes, studying about plant and the animal kingdom, cultivating scientific curiosity, using cautious judgment, developing open-mindedness, and analyzing subject matter, realizing more and more that this is an important subject in the science-minded world of today.

The commercial students, who just couldn't wait to get their hands on a typewriter, soon found it to be a fascinating and complicated machine requiring skill and accuracy, as well as patience and perseverance, for in their chosen occupations all these are necessary qualifications.

Most sophomore students had their first experience with English classics when they read "Silas Marner" and "The Merchant of Venice", selections which cultivated an appreciation of good literature and provided a cultural background for study of the different types of literature in their future school years. However, elements of written composition and public speaking played an equally important part.

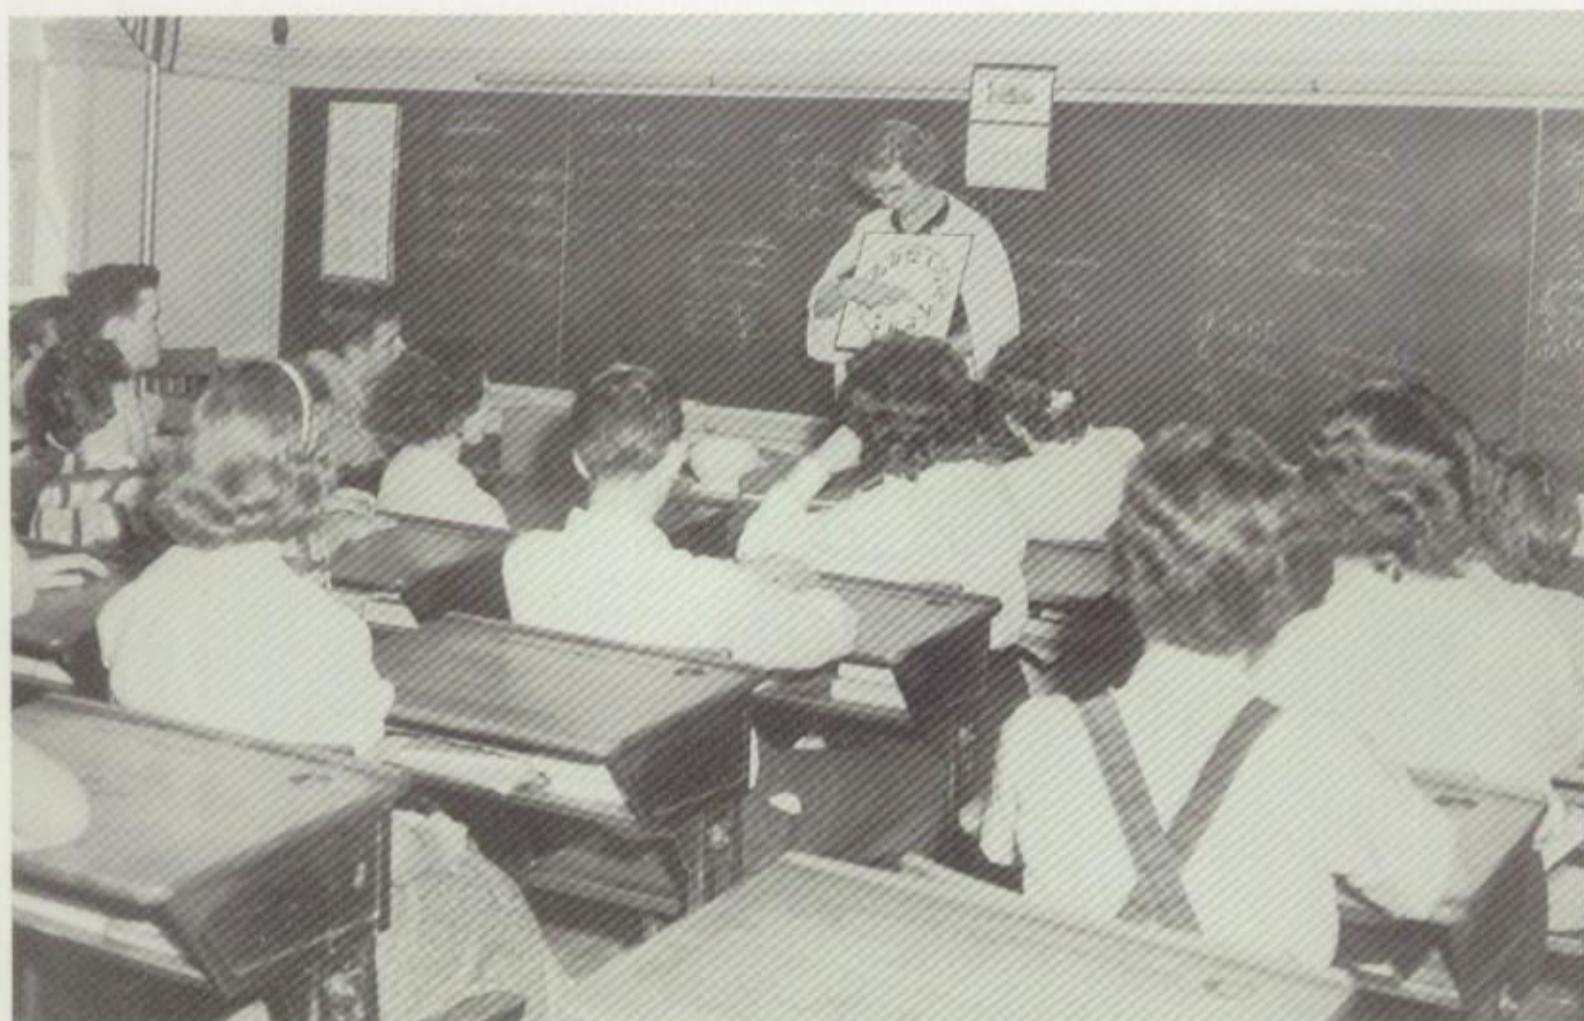

Those who began their first year in Spanish and French also began appreciating foreign languages, as well as acquiring skill in their usage through declensions and translations. "¿Como esta usted?" and "Comment allez-vous?" marked only the beginnings of many moments spent in foreign language conversation and composition.

Yes, this was an interesting year for the sophomores. A year of social development, of gaining scientific knowledge and training to equip them better for the future; a year of cultural development and appreciation of the fine arts; a year of preparation in skills, accuracy, and patience — all qualities which will make them better citizens in their world of tomorrow.

As the respected governing body of the students at Interboro, Student Council has become an enterprising organization under the leadership of its sponsor, Miss Helen Lerch. In addition to setting up a well-organized system for hall monitors, reception duty, and order in the cafeteria, it has sponsored various other worthwhile activities. Selling posies for the benefit of the March of Dimes, sponsoring dances after basketball games, and planning the Christmas program were among the most important of Council's many accomplishments.

Student Council strives to elevate the standards of our school in respect to self-discipline, code of dress, and the student body's own self-government.

In its third year of publication THE BUCCANEER has presented to the student body of Interboro High its first printed newspaper. Co-editors Lois MacFarline and Naomi Bouchelle worked along with their sponsor, Mrs. Bettina Di Micco, and their staff to publish the latest scoops, gossip, editorials, and other interesting and informative features. Upon the departure of Mrs. Di Micco in December, Mr. Roy Dwyer replaced her as sponsor of the school newspaper and captivated an audience with his drawings posted in the main hall announcing the forthcoming issues of THE BUCCANEER.

Not to be forgotten are two other editors. The cartoons and drawings enlivening the issues were drawn by Bill Bovard, Art Editor, and the typing staff, one of the most important groups, was headed by Carol Hall, Typing Editor.

Having no regular club period, the staff members have done all their work after school and deserve much credit for a commendable job.

Scott's Hi-Q

The Scott's Hi-Q team participates in scholastic quizzes with other schools in Delaware County. In the second match of the year, with Lansdowne-Aldan and Marple-Newtown, Interboro's team made 36 points. This event broke the school's high point record and also established the highest number of points made by any competing school in a single match so far this season. The programs consisting of the three competing schools are broadcast over the Chester radio station every Sunday.

HAIL THE VICTORS

LET ME IN THERE COACH!

Enthusiasm ran high when Interboro opened its season as a solid choice for the Section III Championship. Because of wins over non-league Lansdown-Aldan, and two league teams, Clifton Heights and Sharon Hill, the possibility of an undefeated season began to be discussed.

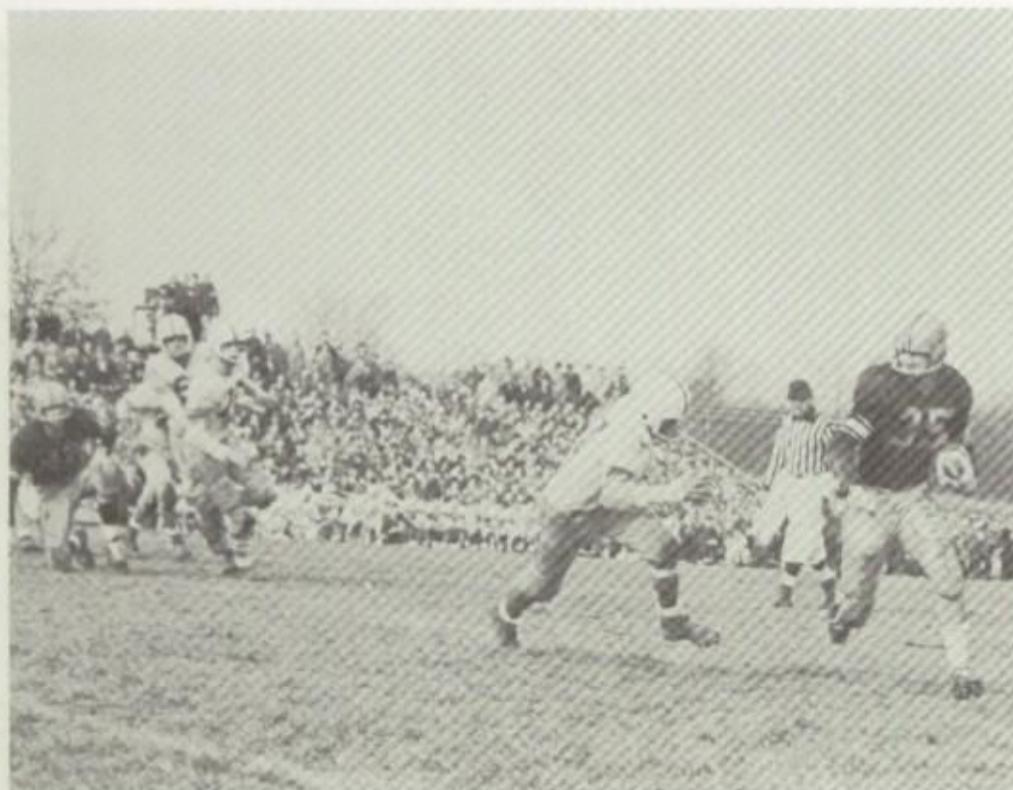

With the Darby game, however, such hopes vanished as the Buc's record received its first blemish. After wins over hot and cold Eddystone and Collingdale, the record stood at 5-1.

Ridley Township copped a true heartbreaker from a fighting Interboro team. The Black and Gold played its heart out, but simply couldn't start an attack rolling on the wet field.

Following a thirty point showing by Al (Go-go-go) Costa against seniorless Penncrest, I.H.S. was conquered by the superior Chichester team, which closed with an undefeated season.

In the closest game in the history of Thanksgiving rivalry, Ridley Park walked off the field with its third straight decision of the series. The game could have easily gone the other way with only a few breaks.

The All-Delco selections saw Al Costa on the second team, John Mitro on the third team; and George Smith, Jim McLaughlin, and Steve Bosacco given honorable mention.

The Varsity hockey team, coached by Miss Dorothy McKnight, can be proud of its 1957 season. They ended their campaign with a record of three wins, two losses, and four ties. High scorer for the year was Betsy Gibbs, ace center forward.

The J.V.'s, with Mrs. Margaret Simpson as their coach, had just as successful a season with three wins, two losses, and four ties. Diane Talone and Ruth Beck are given credit for the most goals.

All of the Varsity's games were exciting, but the heartbreaker of the season was a 3-3 tie with Clifton Heights. Interboro's girls were leading until the final seconds of the contest, when an opponent broke away and scored to tie the game.

Basketball fortunes at Interboro seem to be rising with each successive year, and after the winning season this year, next year's prospects look excellent.

The early one point victory for Coach Storey's team over Eddystone proved to be one of the highlights of the season, but the very next game erased this joy as Chichester continued its athletic dominance over Interboro with a two point victory.

Although the second Eddystone game was a great disappointment successive wins over school rivals Ridley Park and Chichester in close games pushed enthusiasm to previously unknown heights.

Penncrest forced the Bucs to go all the way in a supposedly "snap" game. The Black and Gold trailed until the last second of play, tied the score, and then won in overtime.

FUTURE CHAMPIONS

In spite of a tie for the best record of any Class A, Section III team with Chichester, L.H.S. was invited to compete in the District I, Class A playoffs. After psychological as well as physiological preparations had been made, it was finally announced that we must first beat Chichester in order to reach the playoffs.

The game itself was exciting. However, although the Bucs fought valiantly, the fight seemed to have been in vain, as we lost when Chi sank a hook shot with only seconds remaining.

Coach Robert Peffley's J.V.'s improved during one season from an inexperienced ball club to a fast-breaking, hustling outfit. Hard work and patient hours of extra practice paid off with a winning record.

FIRST ROW: R. Deibler, R. Markley, R. Heisner, B. Montieth, H. Roth. SECOND ROW: J. Hamilton, S. Nice, H. Hartig, F. Venish, C. Smith, T. Egan, D. Quigg, Mr. Peffley

This year's varsity team closed its season with two wins, one tie, and six losses. During the entire season, despite their losses, our girls played hard and didn't give up without a fight. Coached by Miss McKnight, they alternated captains at each game. The home games were the most exciting, and many resulted in close scores. Though the team lost to Ridley Park by only one point, the peak of their enthusiasm was reached with their first win at the Sharon Hill game.

High scorers were Carolyn Sharpless with 81 points and Cassie Corcoron with 62 points.

The J.V. Team full of pep and spirit, completed a successful season with only one loss, one tie, and seven wins. Under the excellent coaching of Mrs. Simpson, who had no need to give any of these spirited girls pep pills, the team played many thrilling games. During the Collingdale game, one of the most exciting, the winning points were scored in the last few minutes of the game. Another interesting nip and tuck game was played with Darby when our team won by only four points.

High Scorers for the season were Barbara Hawke with 75 points and Margie George with 73.

The Interboro Rifle Team, this year under the expert leadership of Mr. Outlaw, terminated its season with a record of six wins and four losses. With two fine seasons behind them, they can look back upon many exciting victories. But they especially remember that planned match with Monsignor Bonner High School when it just so happened that both teams arrived at different places for the same match.

At the end of the year the girls were awarded charm necklaces and pins and the boys were given cuff links. The co-captains for 1957-58 were Lois Yarwood and Linda Williams.

As usual, track season opened in the middle of March, but constant snow and rain confined the boys to the gym and to tiring calisthenics. When at last the weather cleared up, the boys were eager to rush to the outdoors and fresh air. The hurdles and cinder path were a welcome sight to Mr. Storey's up-and-coming track team. Approximately fifty boys composed Interboro's well-balanced track squad. As our yearbook goes to press, we cannot tell the outcome; however, we can hope with them that this will be the best season yet.

With only two lettermen returning, Spence McGraw and Andy Lewis, competition for all positions this year was keen from start to finish. Practice began on March 15, time being an important factor for the shaping of a well-organized team. But while enthusiasm and spirit of the boys was a good sign that a winning team was in the making, the keynote for any victorious team is constant improvement. Under the guidance of our outstanding coaches, Mr. Motolla and Mr. Schultz, our boys strove for the qualities essential to good sportsmanship: teamwork, loyalty, and fair play.

THE EDITOR'S LAST WORD. . .

The high school years of the Class of 1958 have passed, but now and in the future when you turn the pages of our BUCCANEER TRAIL, my staff and I hope that you will find many memories of exciting moments at Interboro. We have tried to record all phases of school life around the clock, so that the year 1958 will never be forgotten.

On behalf of those who worked with me, I wish to thank the faculty whose understanding and co-operation were invaluable. And to Miss Lerch, a special thanks for her advice to the art staff. My staff and I cannot express enough our gratitude to Mrs. Cox and Mr. Regester, whose patience and guidance have made our yearbook possible. To all my staff, I say, "Thank you for a job well done."

Carolyn L. Rutherford
